

Master of Social Work

Gain the skills and knowledge to transform people's lives. The curriculum is designed to prepare graduates to work with children and families, apply values and abilities to alleviate suffering, promote children's health and assist the management of elderly care.

FIELD PRACTICUM

is an integral part of social work education. The experience offers an opportunity for students to integrate and apply theoretical knowledge and social work practice skills in diverse human service settings under the instruction of approved agency based social workers.

The Master of Social Work (MSW) program is an administrative track that prepares you to be an architect for social change. Students will learn public policy, study crisis intervention and choose between a clinical social work or social administration concentration.
